THE CITIZENS CONVENE AND FORM A COMMITTEE OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

The Revolution Deferred, Not Abandoned.

(From Monday's Daily.)

Saturday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock, the community was startled by the information that a coup d'etat was in progress, and that the Queen was endeavoring to force her Cabinet to sign a new Constitution which she then proposed to premulgate immediately to the people. The information was at first disbelieved by some, but it was speedily confirmed.

tempts made by the Queen to secure the overthrow of her Ministers, her secret interviews with Noble Dreier and others, the sudden change of Cabinet, coupled with the signing of the Opium and Lottery bills and the immediate prorogation of the Legislature had produced a feeling of intense disgust as well as of growing unrest in the community. Rep. Kamauoha had stated on the floor of the House that the Cabinet would on his desk, yet he could not take it. not carry out the wishes of the Queen, and particularly to a new Constitution. This was property.

The President declared that the property about the property. was attempted, a gentleman who 18. enjoys the confidence of the Queen, told one of the members of the present Cabinet (who was then in private station) that the blow was to be struck, and that the persons Smith and A. S. Wilcox-17. of the Ministers would be secured. In the anticipation that the present Cabinet would not make any resistance to the revolutionary blow, the precaution of arresting them was not taken. Saturday morning one of the Ministers received positive information that a blow was to be struck that afternoon. He immediately proceeded to consult two | consideration. prominent citizens on the course to be taken. After a conference, the to the gentlemen referred to advised the Cabinet to refuse to sign a new Constitution and to decline to rebe demanded. The prorogation of the Legislature was the last chapter in the story of the morning.

Minister Brown said that last Satur-day he found out that there was only a balance of $300 in the Treasury for repairing the roads of Honolulu. The committee which recommended the amount of $30,000 for roads failed to instruct the House that $25,000 of that amount had already been spent, hence the shortage. He moved that the resolution be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to bring in a bill for half the amount ($30,000)
